Letter no B 12 pr 192/56-57 dated 8th October 1956 from the Commr to C.O. - Confirmation of Sri Venkataswamanna, Ex-Daffadar Corporation Commissioner's office for disposing of his pension question 1) The observations made by the A.G. on page 'J' (please see (1) and (2) in para 41 of the P.V.D.)

2) The proposal is to treat the continuance of the service of the Ex-Daffadar, Sri Venkataswamanna, from 1-10-53 (the date on which he attained his 57th age and he had to retire in his inferior service) upto 15-3-56 (the date on which he was actually made to retire at the age of 60) as extension of service, and also to confirm him with effect from 1-2-49 as per ordered in the Commr's order on 19-2-52 retrospectively, as required under Article 80 (a) M.F.C. Vol I, in the circumstances

3) There seems to be no proper periodical verification of the S.P. in the Commr's office.
Hence many such cases of confirmations and retirements with retrospective effect are coming for appl. In this present case the date of birth has been entered quite wrongly that without any attestation with has not been verified and detected earlier It is necessary

In the circumstances explained by the dated 13-3-1956, the period of service of the 13-3-1956 has to be treated as an extension of service as suggested by the Accountant General

The confirmation ordered by the Commissioner in his Memo No B.12-1/51-52 dated 19-2-1952 with retrospective effect from 1-2-1949 requires the sanction of Govt. as per Note (1) of Art 80 (a) of M F C Volume I as stated by the

by the Accountant General Since it is noted in the Service Register (page 14) that the Daffedar was confirmed against the vacant post against which he was working, the confirmation in question may be approved

9 As regards the unauthorised alteration of the date of birth in the Service Register of the Daffedar under reference it may be stated that the same could have been noticed at the time of annual verification of service registers as required under Art 176 of M F C Volume I or at the time of preparing a list of non-gazetted Government servants attaining the age of superannuation as contemplated under Article 296 of M S R The Commissioner may be directed to see that in future the service registers are kept in the custody of the Head of the Office as required under Art 370 (a) of M S R and Art 174 of M F C Volume I and their verification conducted punctually as laid down in Articles 43 and 44 of the Annexure to the Mysore Financial Code
